To whom it may concern,

This is a letter to certify that Dr Arijit Das is a member of our Chemistry Editorial Advisory Board. Dr Das joined the Editorial Board in October 2019 and is a valued and respected member of our advisory community.

Our Editorial Advisory Boards (EABs) were established to help direct our publishing strategy. Members offer their guidance on potential publications and carry out peer reviews on selected manuscripts in their respective fields.

The EABs contain scholars from all over the world and cover more than 300 academic disciplines, from Dentistry to Robotics and Plant Ecology to Banking.

Kind regards,

James Brittain
