if you have brute power, then nature of pitches become irrelevant. The decision to promote Marlon Samuels up the order also partially paid off as he didn't take much time to settle down before he started tonking the bowlers. Samuels during his brief stay smashed 26 off 20 balls including a six each off left-arm spin duo of Doherty and Brad Hogg. He was deceived by a slower delivery from Pat Cummins, which send him back to the dug-out. Gayle-Samuels had put on 41 runs in only 4.3 overs in which Samuels was the dominant partner. Gayle, on the other hand, hit his first six off Shane Watson over long-off and the second one came off Doherty's bowling as it went sailing into the deep mid-wicket area.

"Oct.2" go unobserve

Udaipur, Oct 05: This year's Gandhi Jayanti is unremembered or more precisely has been neglected. To put the evidences regarding the above following descriptions are sound enough. In super market here, four years ago, a Gandhi statue was made where the than DM (South) Puneet Nagar Panchayet Chairman were the prime movers. In the last three years, the statue itself and the second October were given due honour and respect. But this year, there were neither any function nor floral respect. Even a single candle was not lit to memorise the father of nation. The common man at least some flowers could have been put at the statue as that very statue is surrounded by flower gardens. The people at large condemn the administration and the political parties for
