Tripura's renowned chemical scientist and great inventor Dr Arijit Das has launched a new URL for helping students with answers on chemistry whenever they approach him through direct contact. This will also help students access data from some open access sources like Wikieducator (OER), university of California Davis, ERIC US, British Library London UK etc.

This website is also linked to YouTube from where students can access freely different innovative lectures of Dr Das. Dr Das has already devised 21 teaching methodologies and 40 new formulae in chemistry globally. This is along with two open access educational tools indexed in the library of City College New York, namely, 'Hydrocarbon Parser' and 'Bond Order Calculator' from minerazzi.com US. Currently he is working as Assistant Professor (senior grade) at Bir Bikram Memorial Collge, Agartala. Dr Das is also a principal investigator of SERB, DST funded research project (Duration 3 years) from March 2022. He tweeted yesterday on his newly launched website 'To remove Chemistry phobia', launched a new URL helpful to students of UG and PG level.
